Alan K. Steinbrecher Receives Robie Award from Litigation Section

LACBA's Litigation Section presented past LACBA President Alan K. Steinbrecher with its Jim Robie Professionalism and Civility Award at this year's Bench Meets the Bar program. Mr. Steinbrecher was chosen as this year's recipient because he demonstrates the same qualities of professionalism, civility, service, enthusiasm, and collegiality as the award's namesake. The award was created in memory of past LACBA Trustee and Litigation Section Chair Jim Robie, an accomplished trial lawyer and consummate professional who embraced civility and service to the bar and the civil justice system.
